

The Nottingham Quill

Newsletter of the Barony of Nottingham Coill

July A.S.XLI (2007)

Salutations this fine summer evening to Our wonderful Populace of Nottingham Coill from Your Baronage, Talun and Elizabeth.

The two months since Our Investiture at the Tournament of Chivalry have been a whirlwind, and We have been remiss in expressing Our appreciation to the Canton of Cyddlain Downs, the Incipient Incipient Canton of Brockshire Abbey, and Their Excellencies William and Julian for making Our Investiture a very special day. We owe an extra-special thanks to Master Oshi of Sacred Stone, Saban of Sutherland, and Jonathan for taking over preparation of the feast the day of the event so that Talun could devote His attention to the matter at hand. Every event We attend, We are reminded how wonderful and generous the people of Nottingham Coill are.

We will be traveling to stand at Their Majesties side at the great Pennsic War in the Kingdom of Aethelmearc later this summer. While We realize that it is a long and difficult trip and that few of Our subjects are able to make it, We would like to know who of Our Populace will be attending so that We may attempt to visit with you. Please drop Us a note and let Us know where We can find you. We will be camping in site E12 with The Mountain Confederation, our old household from the northern Kingdoms, and We invite any of Our Populace in attendance to the Pipers' Competition held there on the Tuesday evening of War Week. Following the Pennsic War, we encourage all of the Barony to don their silly hats and join Us at W.O.P.P in the Canton of St. Georges. This year promises to be as fun and laid-back as years previous, and as it no longer conflicts with Pennsic, We are greatly looking forward to attending.

Lastly, We are excited at the prospect of having another Baronial Birthday. It has been too long since the Barony has celebrated an anniversary, so We hope to have a marvelous party to make up for missed years. At some point in the future, We also hope to hold a Baronial Meeting to meet with the Baronial Officers, hear the concerns of the populace, and to try to make some plans for the growth of the Barony. More information will be forthcoming as We solidify Our plans.

In Service to the Barony of Nottingham Coill

Elizabeth Canynges, Baroness

The War of the Wings — October 12-14 — Elchenburg Castle — Elkin, NC

The tale of the War of the Wings is told far and wide. Last year, the Barony of the Sacred Stone and the Barony of Windmaster's Hill did enter into conflict with each other, and lo, the Barony of the Sacred Stone did prevail.

This year, Their Excellencies of Black Diamond's precious daughter covets the wings of the Phoenix for herself. Their armies and allies march to claim them for her. Their Excellencies of Sacred Stone and her allies have vowed to protect the Phoenix at all costs.

Special Notes

From your new Baronial Chatelaine:

Greetings and blessings to the Barony of Nottinghill Coill. I hope this day finds you well and prosperous. It is my honor to serve you as your Baronial Chatelaine. I have contacted the Chatelaines throughout the Barony and am excited and pleased with the support and enthusiasm of our local groups.

Several demos are in the works with the largest being held in the Interest Group Brockshire Abbey (Camden, SC) area in September. I hope to see everyone there.

Matthew of Battle, Baronial Chatelaine

From your new Baronial Minister of Arts & Sciences:

Greetings to the Populace of Nottinghill Coill from Meadhbh inghena Thaidgh ui Dohmnaill!

Well, I cannot stay idle for long! I wish my successor Lord Lucien de la Rochelle great success in the office of Baronial Herald, and look forward to working with him in my new capacity of Baronial Minister of Arts and Sciences. I am aware it has been some slight time since we have had an MOAS for the Barony, and I am excited to be allowed to serve in this position. I have several ideas that I want to bring to the table, so to speak. The first being a listing of all our Baronial Artisans and their specialties, so that I may refer interested newcomers to individuals with detailed knowledge in their fields of interest, and so I may find instructors willing to teach. Yes I say instructors, as I do wish to encourage bids for Baronial Collegiums, classes at events, and area workshops where we can share our interests!

Another idea I would like to work with autocrats on is hosting "Artisan's Rows" at events. This is an idea which seems to be working well, and receiving great support in the Northern areas of the Kingdom. The Artisan's Row is a not a static display of arts, but an area where the artisans of our barony may demonstrate their skills, and share their knowledge face to face with the populace. If you are autocratting an event and would like to have an Artisan's Row, please let me know, and I will do my humble best to work on this with you.

Finally, I would like to encourage all the populace to attend the Inter Baronial Collegium, hosted by our fine neighbors in Hawkwood on June 30th. There are a great number of classes being offered, in a wide range of subjects, with excellent instructors.

I look forward to serving the Barony in this new office, and hope we may not only encourage new artisans, but also share the amazing work that the people of our Barony create!

In service,

Meadhbh inghen Thaidgh Ui Dohmnaill, Baronial Minister of Arts and Sciences

From the Seneschal

Warm greetings (literally!) during these Summer months,

Many of our friends will be off to the great Pennsic War this year, and we wish them all the safest journeys there and back. This year I am unable to attend, but my heart goes with the Atlantian army in hopes of a great victory for Crown and Kingdom.

As I near the end of my warranted term, I am stepping down from my office this summer, and am seeking a replacement to serve the Barony as Seneschal. If you are interested in helping with the administrative details of the Barony and can keep careful records, along with keeping up with the correspondence required, please send a letter to myself and Their Excellencies Nottingham Coill We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours,

Lady Hannah
