Yule Toy Tourney II

December 08, 2007

Canton of St. Georges

The Yuletide Season is a time for bright holly nestled in vibrant pine boughs, crisp, cool weather and frosty designs on windows, warm gingerbread and pumpkin spices scenting our homes. Our family and friends gather together to celebrate and share the seasons past.

It is also a time of selfless sharing to those who need our help the most at this joyful time of the year. The Canton of St. Georges would like all to join us for our annual Yule Toy Tourney and help bring the spirit of Yuletide to needy children in the upstate of South Carolina. Each new, unwrapped toy donated will be hand delivered on Christmas Eve to children who would not have the opportunity to experience this magical time of the year!

The Country Santa has been working many years to give toys to needy children in the upstate. ALL toys will be donated to this most worthy organization! The website for The Country Santa is <http://www.countrysanta.org/>

This issue of the Quill has been brought to you in transition by your new seneschal, Lady Etain of Sutherland.

Next month's issue will be published by our new chronicler, Bantiarna Muirgheal inghean uí Ógáin.
