Newsletter of the Barony of Nottingham Coill

As the Winds Blow...

January brings us into a new modern year. Though winter envelopes us, the promise of a new spring is hinted at with the lengthening days. Historically, January was the festival month of Janus, the Roman god of gates and doorways. As we step through the doorway into a new year, we are also hoping to usher in a new goal for the Quill. This publication is here to serve the Barony and as such, should be informative and entertaining. What would you like to see? While we have some ideas of our own, we would like to hear from you as well. If you have ideas on what you would like to see, please email them to quill@nottinghamcoill.org.

News from around the Cantons

Incipency. Is it Contagious?

in cip i ent - beginning to come into being or to become apparent

We are excited for the new Incipient Canton of Brockshire Abbey! Err, what does that mean? After muddling through the legal jargon, it seems to boil down to the following:

- They are now doing all the proper legal actions that a Canton should do, and have filed a New Branch Application.
- They are recognized as doing the things they should, and have been granted the status of Incipient.
- They must maintain a good standing for one year before they can request to be considered for full status.

While there are other more legal points, that is it in a nutshell. We are proud and excited to have these Lords and Ladies working hard for their Canton and our Barony. It is exciting to have another Canton joining the Barony!
