

The Nottingham Quill

May A.S.XLIV(2009)

Newsletter of the Barony of Nottingham

(Reprinted from the Merry Rose)

Unto the populace of fair Atlantia do Their Royal Highnesses, Vladimir and Kalisa, Prince and Princess, send greetings.

We cannot begin to express how honored and thrilled We are to be able to serve this Great Kingdom and its wonderful populace as Royalty. We would like to thank Their Majesties for the opportunity to compete for the honor of being their heirs to the noble thrones of Atlantia. We would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to the fine people of Raven's Cove for their hospitality and kindness. We would also like to thank the populace for their offers of assistance in the months to come and thank those of you who have graciously given their support already. The warmth with which the populace of Atlantia has embraced us has touched us deeply.

As some of you may have already heard we are leaving to be married on Saturday and will return to our Blessed Kingdom at the end of May.

Unfortunately we will be unavailable during that time and request that you hold any inquiries until Our return. For those that need coordinate any details for upcoming events with us in the mean time, We would refer you to our Head Coordinator Duchess Kyneburh (SCAKyna@gmail.com <SCKyna@gmail.com>).

We look forward to the months to come with excitement and wonder as we begin our journey as Atlantia's Heirs.

In Service to Atlantia and All Her people,

Vladimir Kalisa

Prince Princess

The Pennsic Choir

The Known World Choir at Pennsic, also known as the Pennsic Choir, is a group of people from across the Kingdoms of the SCA who love to sing a cappella choral music from the Middle Ages and Renaissance. Singers rehearse and perform pre-17th century choral music at Pennsic and other SCA Wars. Membership in the choir is open to everyone who loves to sing!

To stay informed about the activities of the Known World Choir, and access the music for the Pennsic Choir, join our Yahoo Group at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/KWChoir>. You must have or sign up for a free Yahoo ID to join this online email list. The music for Pennsic 38 is available online in MIDI format as well as PDF from the Known World Choir Yahoo Group web page, or by postal mail from the director. You are strongly encouraged to learn the music before arriving at Pennsic – the better everyone knows their part, the better the concert will be! Walk-ins at Pennsic are welcome, just be prepared to work your vocal chords and your brain!

The Pennsic Choir rehearses daily from 3:00 to 5:00 pm in the Performing Arts Pavilion, then presents a concert on the final Thursday of the War at 6:00 pm. This year's theme, in honor of the International Year of Astronomy, is music about celestial objects. Composers include Michael East, Francis Pilkington, Melchior Vulpius, Hans Leo Hassler, Guillaume de Costeley, Francisco Guerrero, and the ever-popular Anonymous.

For more information about the choir and its schedule, go to www.pennsicwar.org, select A&S from the menu bar at the top of the screen, and then click the link for Pennsic Choir on the left side of the screen.
