Newsletter of the Barony of Nottingham Coill

News and Views

Unto the Populace of Nottingham Coill does Lady Emma send greetings,

As the summer heat draws to a close, the glory of the Barony of Nottingham Coill and our illustrious Kingdom of Atlantia blazes on. The grand army of Atlantia was again the force to be reckoned with on the blood stained fields of Pennsic. Our fighters and artisans displayed with prowess and skill, further solidifying Atlantia as the force to be reckoned with that we are!

But alas, as one great war draws to a close, another is waiting in the wings. Did I say “wings?” In the wake of last year’s epic battle between the forces of the Barony of Sacred Stone and the Barony of Black Diamond, Their Excellencies of Black Diamond and Sacred Stone found themselves with a dilemma. In the end, both sides claimed victory over the other and the earlier disputes between the Royal Cousins were left unsettled. Since there is no Instant Replay in war, the only course of action is to have the war again! So, coming soon to a castle near you, the long awaited sequel to War of the Wings II, from the people who brought you War of the Wings, Wastelands, and the ever popular Sacred Stone’s Novice Tourney, they are proud to present, War of the Wings III, The Rematch!.

The Barony of Nottingham Coill is once again proud to take up arms with their allies in the Barony of Sacred Stone and pledge to put an end to the controversy. Our Barony secured the war points for Best Heraldic Procession and without those points, the Barony of Black Diamond would have been the clear winner. Let’s unite once again in the Baronial Encampment and show our unified support once again!

Within the Barony over the next several weeks leading up to the War of the Wings III, there are ample opportunities for our populace to make preparations for the upcoming war. Need new garb? Want something more presentable for war? Check out the Canton of Ritterwald’s Mercer Shoppe coming up on September 20th. There is sure to be something to your liking so that we can yet again be the best dressed Barony in the Kingdom!

On September 27th, the Incipient Canton of Brockshore Abbey will host the 2nd Annual Friends of the Library Demo for the Hartsville Memorial Library. All are invited to come hone their marshal and craft skills as Brockshore Abbey puts on a grand display for the public to benefit the library.

So, with the approaching war, come out and support your Barony as we join forces with the Barony of Sacred Stone and her allies to again, and this time decisively, defeat the barbarians of the Barony of Black Diamond!

Hope to see you all soon!

Thanks Lady Isolda for the suggestion for a Question of the Month;

What is your favorite thing about the SCA and how did you get started?

Yours in service, Lady Emma

UPCOMING EVENTS

Unto the people of Nottinghamill Coill does Lady Isolda Jourdan send greetings! The Barony of Nottinghamill Coill will have an encampment at the third annual War of the Wings (<http://warofthewings.com>). I would like to invite all members of the populace to join in on the fun at the event. Last year, we were the largest encampment on site, and it was Our Barony which won the heraldic procession at the start of the event. This war point was the determining point which won the war for our allies, the Barony of Sacred Stone. Can we surpass ourselves this year?

Send your modern or period tent footprint, including room for ropes, and the number of people in your party to Isolda (me). Include whether or not you have an extra tent for a kitchen, etc, a fire pit, or if you are bringing a pavilion for community space, as well as any preferences for location within the camp. The site designates space to each group encampment based upon the number of people preregistered, so don't forget to do that as well!

Already, many members of the Barony are working to make this year's camp the best ever. Will you be a part of history? Volunteers are needed for various things throughout the weekend, including setting up the camp walls, feast prep, cleanup, and guard duty at the gates. I would like to ask if anyone has a few spare portable holes for the camp walls which we may borrow. The earth at the site is too hard to dig holes to set the wall poles into the ground. For Saturday, we would like to have sets of guards to "guard" the camp in short 1 hour shifts.

There will be a potluck feast on Saturday, Oct. 11th. I would like to ask for a few volunteers with cook stoves or other heating methods to help warm up potluck dishes. This will be done during Court. We will also need a few tables to set out the food for serving.

Please bring a potluck item, listed below by your modern last name:

A-H: Bread or Dessert

I-R: Vegetable or Fruit

S-Z: Beverage

CONCERNING MEAT:

Lord Joshua Decimus, from the Canton of St. George, has graciously volunteered to cook on-site so there will be fresh meat. There is a $2.00 per person for meat (chicken) and some extra goodies.

To reserve a serving of meat, please send $2.00 (per person) by check or money order by October 1st:

Melissa Jordan
104 Saint Andrews Way
Greenville, SC 29607

email: isolda.of.falconcree@gmail.com
ph: (864) 289-0336 (please no calls after 9 pm)

I will accept money for the feast until NO LATER THAN October 1st. All meat must be pre-paid due to planning needs. Feast tokens will be issued on arrival at the camp - you must present your token to receive meat. If you have sent in your feast money and not received confirmation from me after 1 week, please call me!

The Mercer Shoppe

Ah...lovely autumn! And with September comes the new season of tournaments, feasts, masks and courts to attend, but what to wear? Certainly not last year's tunic!

And what if one's tailor has not visited the estate? Or, worse yet, one must tailor for themselves? What to do? There are fabrics to purchase, patterns to draft, measurements to take, garments to design, seams to stitch and fittings to do to make sure that the new ensemble is flattering. This can be a lot to consider for the modern medieval busy with the daily management of their estates.

But good fortune is with those gentles wishing assistance in creating wonderful, new clothing to enjoy during the winter months ahead. The village of Winterhafen located in the heart of the Canton of Ritterwald has a well stocked mercer shoppe which will be open from 10 am to 5 pm on Saturday, September 20th, 2008. In addition to the normal findings of fabric, trim, sewing accessories and other items that people bring to buy, sell or trade, this particular mercer shoppe will host a series of classes, specifically geared toward those gentles who wish to hone their skills on the early periods of clothing.

Other merchants are certainly welcome, but please give advance notice of intention as space is limited. Availability of lunch is limited. Please send reservations by September 13th to ensure space. Local taverns are close by for supper after the close of the shoppe and lodging is readily available in the village at local inns. There will be a post shopping revel at the home of THL Arielle ben Dubh, with a bonfire and tenting available.

Site Specifics: The Museum is a dry site, no animals allowed, no availability for child care, no smoking. Tables for sewing machines and cutting fabrics are available. Please bring all fabrics ready to cut, plus all personal sewing accessories such as sizzors, pins, etc.

Post revel: wet site, camping available for no extra charge, no child care, primitive, no animals allowed, smoking allowed in designated areas.

Cost: Day trip with lunch: $12.00 per person 18 years and older, $8.00 per person 5 to 17 years. Four and under free. Day trip only: $8.00 per person 18 years and older, $5.00 per person 5 – 17 years, four and under free. Make checks payable to : "SCA Inc/Canton of Ritterwald" and send to Autocrat. No evening feast is provided. No charge for camping at post revel.

Class roster available from autocrat (contact information below).

Autocrat : Beatrice von Staufen (Jessica Rose) P.O.Box 9532, Columbia SC, 29290. 803-646-6441. baronessbeatrice@hotmail.com

Site: Aiken County Historical Museum, 433 Newberry St. SC, Aiken, SC 29801 803-642-2015

Long has it been since the old tournaments in the abandoned Castle de Vymont.

Many are the days that have passed since the mighty equestrians raced down the field to throw a great and worthy opponent from their horse.

I long to hear the sound of steel on steel as the combatants would fight to win the favor of a fair maiden in the crowd.

But I have heard rumors.....

Could they Be True.....

Some travelers came down the road while I was amongst the workers in the field one day and they were headed toward the old castle. I yelled that they should take the other route to the populace of Cyddlain Downs but they insisted on going to the castle.

Later that evening I was awakened by the distant sounds of pick axes and hammers. I decided to take a walk and see for myself if the rumors were true. As I walked down the road I began to hear chanting as the monks used in mass in the castle's glory years. When the old castle came into view I was frozen with awe and excitement. The Monks of Brockshore Abbey had returned. Praise Be!!!! I could hardly believe that they had embarked on the task of rebuilding the castle. I worked my way up to one of the monks and asked why they had decided to rebuild the castle, the champions were all gone. He told us that in a vision one of the monks saw four new champions with Castle de Vymont in the background. With the permission of the crown they had returned and would host a great tournament to crown the four champions. The monk continued to say that along with the tournament there would be games and festivities that would put the event high on a most grandiose scale. Afterwards a great Feast would be prepared and served to the all who would attend to honor the champions of the day and the hard work of the monks to hold such a great event.

Come and Join the Hartsville Friends of the Library and Brockshore Abbey in the awesome Demo. The Tournament will be September 27, 2008 in Hartsville, SC. All forms of Martial activities will be taking place throughout the day along with demonstrations, Vendors and also a castle siege to conclude the Martial activities of the day. Last a Feast to benefit the Hartville Friends, money to be used to increase the collection of material on the Middle Ages in the Hartsville Memorial Library.

For SCA members there is no camping or daytrip fee. I was also able to get the price of feast dropped to $10 a person for SCA members. Check-in is anytime after 4pm on Friday and Check-out is by 11AM on Sunday

Reservations can be made by emailing Thomas de Witt at WTDhartslib@yahoo.com.

Even if you are not planning on attending feast, drop us a line just to let us know that you are coming and if you have a pavilion and/or tent you would like to set up and please send us the footprint sizes.
